Angeline - thanks for your response. Please send me copies of the requests that were sent to my client for reconciliation information as my client has advised that it has not received any such requests. Also, I should have been copied on those requests for information and did not receive copies of those requests.

Best

Eve,

At the direction of the Bankruptcy Court at the December 13th omnibus hearing, the Debtors were working to reconcile a group of Opt-In Ballots by December 23rd that fall within the category specified by the Bankruptcy Court. Our records indicate that your client did not respond to any requests from M-III for further information. Therefore, your client's Opt-In Ballot did not fall within the specified category and will be deemed a Non Opt-Out claim. We will be in contact as we work through the reconciliation of Non Opt-Out claims in the coming weeks.

Best,

All - I just reviewed the Amended Notice of Distribution and do not see my client listed. I sent several emails to you asking about status and whether you needed additional information from my client. The only response I received was from Angeline who advised that my client's claim was in the reconciliation process and she asked for no additional information.

Please advise why my client's claim is not included in the attached Amended Notice.

Best

Eve
